Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary, you may attach pages stating additional grounds and facts supporting the same.

Caution: If you fail to set forth all grounds in this motion, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

For your information, the following is a list of the most frequently raised grounds for relief in these proceedings. Each statement preceded by a letter constitutes a separate ground for possible relief. You may raise any grounds which you may have other than those listed. However, you should raise in this motion all available grounds (relating to this conviction) on which you base your allegations that you are being held in custody unlawfully.

Do not check any of these listed grounds. If you select one or more of these grounds for relief, you must allege facts. The motion will be returned to you if you merely check (a) through (j) or any one of the grounds.

(a) Conviction obtained by plea of guilty which was unlawfully induced or not made voluntarily or with understanding of the nature of the charge and the consequences of the plea.

(b) Conviction obtained by use of coerced confession.

- (i) Denial of effective assistance of counsel.
- (j) Denial of right of appeal.

A. Ground one: Ineffective Assistance of Counsel

Supporting FACTS (state briefly without citing cases or law) My indictment doesn't charge an underlying crime of violence or drug trafficking. However it charges a 924(c) which requires an underlying offense. Had this been argued
My indictment would have been dismissed.

B. Ground two: LACK OF JURISDICTION

Supporting FACTS (state briefly without citing cases or law) Without a formal 3 sufficient indictment a court doesn't acquire Jurisdiction ^{NY 924(c)} ~~at the~~ lacks an underlying ^{Federal} crime which is a jurisdictional requirement it refers to assault but general assault is not a federal crime 3 to charge the ~~also~~ in same court would be Multiple citations

MOTION UNDER 28 USC §2255 TO VACATE, SET ASIDE, OR CORRECT SENTENCE BY A PERSON IN FEDERAL CUSTODY

(If movant has a sentence to be served in the future under a federal judgment which he or she wishes to attack, the movant should file a motion in the federal court which entered the judgment.)

MOTION TO VACATE, SET ASIDE, OR CORRECT SENTENCE BY A PERSON IN FEDERAL CUSTODY

Explanation and Instructions – Read Carefully

- 1) This motion must be legibly handwritten or typewritten and signed by the movant under the penalty of perjury. Any false statement of a material fact may serve as the basis for prosecution and conviction for perjury. All questions must be answered concisely in the proper space on the form.
- 2) Additional pages are not permitted except with respect to the facts which you rely upon to support your grounds for relief. No citation of authorities need be furnished. If briefs or arguments are submitted, they should be submitted in the form of a separate memorandum.
- 3) Upon receipt, motion will be filed if it is in proper order. No fee is required with this motion.
- 4) If you do not have the necessary funds for transcripts, counsel, appeal, and other costs connected with a motion of this type, you may request permission to proceed in forma pauperis, in which event you must execute form AO 240 or any other form required by the court, setting forth information establishing your inability to pay the costs. If you wish to proceed in forma pauperis, you must have an authorized officer at the penal institution complete the certificate as to the amount of money and securities on deposit to your credit in any account in the institution.
- 5) Only judgments entered by one court may be challenged in a single motion. If you seek to challenge judgments entered by different judges or divisions either in the same district or in different districts, you must file separate motions as to each such judgment.
- 6) Your attention is directed to the fact that you must include all grounds for relief and all facts supporting such grounds for relief in the motion you file seeking relief from any judgment of conviction.
- 7) When the motion is fully completed, the original and at least two copies must be mailed to the Clerk of the United States District Court whose address is
- 8) Motions which do not conform to these instructions will be returned with a notation as to the deficiency.
